never expect to see you any- more

chorus:

My home's across the blue ridge mountains (x3)
And I never expect to see you anymore

I'm gonna leave here Monday mornin' (x3)
And I never expect to see you anymore

Rock the baby and feed him candy (x3)
Cause I never expect to see you anymore

How can I keep from crying ? (x3)
Cause I never expect to see you anymore

Oh how I hate to leave you (x3)
For I never expect to see you anymore

So good- bye my little darling (x3)
I never expect to see you anymore

Will you please tell my poor old mother (x3)
That I'll see her on the judgment day
