

League Mission

The Fall League Camp is designed to provide instruction and game experience for middle school baseball players. The camp will focus on game and individual team instruction. Players will play up to two games a week and have opportunities for instruction in all aspects of the game. The camp will also introduce strength and speed workouts applicable to baseball players.

The purpose of this league is instruction oriented. Winning games will not be the primary purpose. Developing players for middle and high school will be the focus.

Registration

Registration forms are due by August 10th. A mandatory meeting and instructional time is scheduled for August 10th for all participants at 5:30 at Clarksville National big field.

Teams will be assigned on the 10th as well, you will also receive your t-shirt and your game schedule. Games will begin on August 13th.

Camp Staff

Brian Hetland, the Head Coach at Clarksville High, will serve as the camp coordinator. Hetland worked as the Head Assistant at Austin Peay from 1988-2006. He also served as the Interim Head Coach in 1991 for most of the spring. Hetland also serves as the general manager of the Clarksville Orioles Baseball Organization. Hetland has coached at all levels of play from youth to college level. Development of baseball players is a passion for him. Currently three of his former players, Shawn Kelley, George Sherrill and A.J. Ellis are playing in the major leagues.

Assisting Hetland with the camp will be Jason Rice (Head Coach at Rossvie) & Jared Hill (Assistant at CHS). Jared, a former collegiate catcher will work with the catchers and hitters. Jason will specialize with the pitchers in the league. Other area coaches will assist in this camp to round out this outstanding staff.

INSURANCE & MEDICAL COVERAGE

A secondary accident insurance package is included in the camp registration fee. Because of the intense schedule, each camper should report in top physical shape
