Opening; An Order of Worship for the Evening

- We accepted Pat's resignation from the committee.

- We watched the next Windows on Mission segment: Crossing the River – Honduras, about Valeska Daley, a young woman of Honduran heritage who was educated in Boston and returned to Honduras to work with micro-enterprise, encouraging woman who have started cottage industries.

- Marshal has his passport and the hope is that all will work out for September enrollment at Syracuse University. Abiot Moyo will be going to Zimbabwe soon.

- We have met our goal of raising $500 for Plumpy'nut, with $507.64 so far; there are still two Sunday's to go. We will have a special presentation of the final amount on Sunday, July 5th at the 10:15 service.

- We reviewed our contributions over the last few years and we will decided in September if we might want to dedicate some of our funds to a specific ministry. Any money the comes in between July 1 and the September meeting will go to a microenterprise ministry in Honduras.

Closing Prayer

God of Justice and Compassion, You give us a Work to do and a baptism of suffering and resurrection. From you comes the power to give to others the care we have ourselves received so that we and all who love your world may live in Harmony and Trust. Amen
