

12 Steps to Financing a College Education With Minimal Borrowing

Table of Contents

Preface	A brief introduction	ii
Step 1:	As a parent, become involved in your child’s education.	1
Step 2:	Cooperatively establish high school and college objectives and plans.	8
Step 3:	Prepare adequately for the ACT / SAT.	16
Step 4:	Learn to work closely with your high school guidance counselors and teachers.	21
Step 5:	Begin your financial plan as early as possible.	25
Step 6:	Teach your child to become involved in volunteer community, civic, or church service.	37
Step 7:	Provide guidance for your child to become involved in extracurricular activities.	42
Step 8:	Record all awards, honors, achievements, and positions of leadership (offices) held during high school.	47
Step 9:	Instill the attitude of working and saving money.	54
Step 10:	Go for all of the scholarships possible.	60
Step 11:	Apply for all state, federal, local, and private grants.	65
Step 12:	You’re not in this alone. Putting it all together. Loans – ugh!	69
Index	By subject	74