Notes for JOHN STEWART:

John Stewart was the second son of Walter Stewart, Sr., founder of the Walter Stewart Family, and his first wife, Mary Ross. He was born June 2, 1787.

Family tradition says that John was born at sea while the family was on the way from County Antrim, Ireland to America. On his application for American citizenship on file at the Laurens County Courthouse in Laurens, SC, John stated on April 17, 1810 that he was born in Ireland and had resided in the state of South Carolina for 21 years. (If he was born on a ship under Irish registry, however, international law considered him a native of Ireland.)

John grew up at his parents' homeplace about a mile behind the present site of Bethany Presbyterian Church in lower Laurens County. In 1815, at age 28, he married 19-year-old Adeline Pitts (Linny), the daughter of Elizabeth Anderson and Henry Pitts, Jr., who lived near the Bethany community. Family tradition says that John made some of the furniture that the young couple used in their first home, including a chest with initial and date (1815), a drop leaf table, and four dining chairs, all of which survived for many years.

John and his wife Linny reared their family of six daughters and five sons in the community of Sandy Springs, about four miles west of Bethany Presbyterian Church. The exact location of their home is not known, but from references in 6 Clark Berry Stewart's journal, it was probably on the road between Sandy Springs Methodist Church and Bethany Presbyterian Church, not far from the later homeplace of 1.11.3 John Wesley Donnan (see Bethany map). John and Linny and their family were members of Bethany Presbyterian Church, where John became one of the first two deacons when an election was first held in 1841. He appears to have served as Justice of the Peace for Scuffletown Township for a time, and came to be known as Squire John. Even his much younger half-brother Clark called him "Squire John" occasionally - or else "Uncle John."

Notes for WILLIAM A. PITTS:
Living with parents in 1850 census

Good mystery here.
A document (copy) was shown or described to Ernest C. Bolt, Sr. It was his work that I'm building my research on to go beyond Edwin Leroy Pitts. Ernest was derailed by a conflict in this document by the date - December 19 1837.
It covered the consignment of the Management of Estate of William Pitts to his father Henry Pitts. This document was signed by the children of Henry Pitts and their spouses. Ernest Bolt found that Matilda A. Boyd would not have been of marriagable age at 1837. In fact she married Isaac Boyd in 1844. I have gone on with newer information and realize that Louisa J. Pitts would have not been married to John Cooper at age 10.

L. E. Pitts, if this is Lucinda Emeline Pitts, signing a document at age 1?
And if William was born in 1826, what kind of estate does an 11 year old have that needs a legal document?

I believe that the year is a typo or bad copy and the date of the document is probably December 19 1847 or more likely December 19 1857.
The number 5 can look like a 3 in old faded documents. I need to find this document to see for myself.

Notes for EDWIN LEROY PITTS:

Birthdate found handwritten in back of devotional owned by Helen Cooper Taylor, provided by Michael dean Bryant, a Deacon of Union Baptist Church of Laurens, S. C.

Date also verified by tombstone inscription.

Month given by Ernest Bolt appears to be wrong.

Ernest Bolt gives February 11, 1818

other sources give December 11, 1818

153 1/2 acres on Walnut Creek bought for $5.00 from his brother Y. J. H. Pitts November 1863. $5.00 was obviously to make it legal. Their Mother died at this time.

'In Trust' was written between the names on the Index.

This was apparently the land he owned that was shown on the Kyzer & Hellams map of 1883. He would have died before publication.

I will get a copy of the deed later. Book Q? Page 317

Notes for CLAUDE MILLS PITTS:

A bit of trivia, Mom had told me that Dad was named after the Doctor that delivered him. With a bit of research I found Dr. Claude Benjamin Mills.

Dr Claude Mills was married to Ethel Lee Chandler who was a 2nd Cousin to Molly Caldwell. The common Gr-Gr-etc Grandparents would be Weitt Chandler (1786-1847) and Sarah Bailey (1795-?) .
