Generation No. 3

3. WILLIAM³ CALDWELL (*JOHN*², *JOSEPH*¹) was born 1706 in Ireland, and died 1761. He married REBECCA PARQUE 1724 in Ireland, daughter of JAQUES PARQUE. She was born 1708 in County Antrim, Ireland, and died 1807 in Mill Creek, Newberry County.

Notes for WILLIAM CALDWELL:

H. William Caldwell, son of John Caldwell and Margaret Phillips

Born 1706, Ireland

Married Rebecca Park/Parque Walkup, a widow.

In 1759 William was appointed Trustee for the town of Daltonsburg, later to be known as the town of Charlotte Court House, Virginia. William inherited from his father's estate 440 acres of land and the family Bible.

William died between Dec. 28, 1758 when his will was written and April 17, 1761 when his will was proved. He does not mention in his will the names of his children. The only people mentioned are his wife Rebecca and a slave called Sambo. Deed Book 1, page 329

He is buried at Cub Creek, Va.

Notes for REBECCA PARQUE:

Submitted to DAR in 1974 by Ann Roy:

Rebecca Parque (Park) was born 1707 in County Antrim, Ireland, the daughter of a Huguenot Refugee, Jaques Parque (James Park). At the age of sixteen she was married to John Walkup, a marriage arranged by her father and the groom, who was fifty two years old. Four months after the wedding, Rebecca was a childless, penniless widow. In 1724 she married William Caldwell in Ireland. William had been schooled in Scotland at an early age and was considered educated, a man intensely proud of his heritage and possessing charm and tremendous physical strength. William and Rebecca came to America in 1727 with the Caldwell family and had children born in Pa. and Va., Margaret in 1728, Eleanor, Rebecca 1738, John 1740, William Thomas 1748, Martha in 1730, Sarah and James 1755, Elizabeth 1757, David Robert 1760.

The cemetery at Cub Creek Church in Va. is an acre of land conveyed by William Caldwell for that purpose 4/2/1751.

When William Caldwell died in Va. in 1761, leaving Rebecca with so many young children, he stipulated that slave SAMBO be her possession until her death. Within the next ten years the entire family had moved to South Carolina and shortly thereafter the Revolutionary War was started.

This is a contribution from Edith Greisser forwarded to Dean Simpson :

I disagree with some dates given by Ann Roy. My reason for this statement is simply put:

If Rebecca Parque Walkup had been born 1707 she would have been 53 years old when her last child was born. Although this is possible I feel it is highly improbable given the fact there was no prenatal care or precautions for a woman of that age. I feel most likely Rebecca was born 1710/1711 and married William just prior to his sailing to America.

Also, the birth date of the child called Martha is in question; if Martha had been born 1730 as some claim she would have been 45 years old when her first child was born and 54 when the last child was born; her headstone reads 1750 - 1802 and I am inclined to believe that version. It is possible that there was a "Martha" born in 1730 who died before 1750 when the second "Martha" was born.

Children of WILLIAM CALDWELL and REBECCA PARQUE are:

- i. MARGARET⁴ CALDWELL, b. 1729; m. JOHN RITCHIE.
- ii. REBECCA CALDWELL, b. 1738; m. JOSIAH EAST.
- iii. MAJOR JOHN CALDWELL, b. 1740; d. Nov 1781, Newberry District, South Carolina.

Notes for JAMES CALDWELL:

As a Militia Captain in the Revolutionary War, he entered service 1780 and on 1/17/1781 under General Pickens he was severely wounded at the Battle of Cowpens. His hands were severely mutilated in his efforts to protect his head. There were seven wounds: one began at his right eye, cut across his face taking off part of his cheek bone, the fingers of one hand were all cut off except the thumb and a stump of the forefinger, he had five cuts on the head and was pierced with the sword besides. After the battle was over, James, left for dead, was found by his brother, William, and was given water and removed to a neighboring house owned by a Quaker where he stayed until he regained the strength to travel. He was incapacitated from active service in the militia after the episode at Cowpens. SAR records state he died at Cowpens. I wrote e-mail to the SAR asking them to correct that data but months later saw the statement unchanged. The Caldwell family of Spartanburg had a son, James Caldwell, who was killed at Cowpens and I believe this is where the confusion lies.

James later served in the State Legislature but could never be induced to be a candidate for re-election stating he was "unfit for the place". He was Sheriff of Newberry District 1807 - 1812 and an Elder at the Little River/Dominick Presbyterian Church.

There are many variations as to the exact circumstances of the overtaking of the execution of Michael Love, the Tory, but whatever account is the most accurate they all place James Caldwell of Mudlick at the center of the lynching. Michael Love had earned a reputation as a follower of Bloody Bill Cunningham. Mr. Love was said to be the most ruthless follower, hacking bodies after they were dead, piercing the fallen to ensure no survivors of a skirmish. Too many people in and around the "96" area of Newberry District were directly affected by the horrors of the acts of war and wanted revenge. On 11/26/1784 Judge Aedanus Burke started Court proceedings for the trial of Mr. Love and the hearings ending 12/7/1784. The Judge had ruled in Court that the deeds done by Michael Love had been acts of war and were thereby forgiven with the Treaty of Paris.

He ordered Michael Love to pay the costs of Court and be released. Mr. Love swore he was unable to pay the costs and therefore was sentenced for non payment.

Captain Caldwell, with pistol in hand, marched into the Courthouse, taking the prisoner from the Bar, pulling him through the door and throwing him on a horse held by James Atwood Williams. The prisoner was led to a stooping oak tree near a spring and hanged. The judge was so shocked by the action he fled, not pausing until he had reached a friend's house in Springfield.³⁴ Another version says that the townspeople waited until nightfall, when the judge had retired and the prisoner was in jail to seize Michael Love and lynch him, with James Caldwell as the leader of the mob. When Governor Guerard heard of the actions taken he ordered apprehension of all involved. Judge Burke, later being more informed and having time to reflect, wrote an article excusing the rash act. This deed of the Judge ended the enquiry.

James Caldwell carried the scars of war with dignity, yet a first glimpse of his face must have frightened many children. He was fondly referred to as "Uncle Jim" in Cothran/Chiles Notes and was a loving Patriarch of his family.

In 1804 a Joseph Williams bequeathed to James and Elizabeth Caldwell his large family Bible and medical book by Buchanan of Edinborough for the respect and hospitality shown to him by James and Elizabeth since he became a citizen of that State.

James Caldwell died 1813 in possession of 1155 acres of land on Little River. His wife, Mary Elizabeth Caldwell, died Oct. 3, 1822.

4. WILLIAM THOMAS⁴ CALDWELL (WILLIAM³, JOHN², JOSEPH¹) was born 10 Mar 1747/48 in Charlotte County, Virginia, and died 16 Dec 1814 in Newberry District, South Carolina. He married ELIZABETH ANN WILLIAMS 18 Mar 1783 in District "96", daughter of MAJOR JOHN WILLIAMS. She was born 28 May 1759 in Laurens District, South Carolina, and died 03 Jan 1815 in Newberry District, South Carolina.

Notes for WILLIAM THOMAS CALDWELL:

William joined his brother John's company of Rangers in June or July 1775. On 6/12/1775 he was posted during the Battle on Sullivan's Island on the east end to hold Henry Clinton in check. He was a militia Lieutenant and a daring scout during the Revolutionary War, Captain of the 3rd SC Militia, taken prisoner at Fort McIntosh Ga. in 1777 and taken to St. Augustine, Florida, along with Lieutenant Milton of the Georgia Brigade. In the Alphabetical List of Officers of the Continental Army he was listed as taken prisoner at Fort Howe Ga. on 2/18/1777 and released from prison Nov. 1777. In an article by Sarah M. Taylor, great-great grand daughter to William Caldwell, he was captured at the fall of Fort McIntosh, located on the Santilla River, halfway between Waycross and Jesup, Georgia. O'Neal and Sara Taylor both wrote that he was so pale and thin when he finally reached home that neither his mother nor his betrothed, Elizabeth Williams, recognized him. Sara Taylor included in her version that William was accompanied by and helped to make escape through the efforts of a slave called Cudjo. This may have been a story of fiction.

In October 1999, I went to the Historical Society Library in St. Augustine. There was nothing in any file at the library pertaining to William Caldwell. A book "1777 - More invasions and Retreats" found there mentioned on page 86 that Captains Milton and Caldwell were taken from Fort McIntosh to St. Augustine as hostages until exchanges were made between the rebel forces and the Royals. Fort Howe was mentioned as the Fort to which Commander Winn hoped for reinforcements. That help did not arrive in time. According to a letter from Lt. Col. Brown to Governor Tonym, the fort was surrendered without fight. Nowhere could I find a mention of an escape of William Caldwell. My belief is that in November 1777 the exchanges were completed and Captain Caldwell was released. I was told by the curator of the St. Augustine Library that most prisoner officers were boarded in the town proper in the homes of private citizens. Only those officers who could not afford the lodging charged by the townspeople or those who were considered too dangerous were kept at the fort. A tour through the fort showed the cell area almost impossible to leave (escape) due to multiple drawbridges, gators, and swamp.

Perhaps someday some proof of an escape can be found, most likely in the records of the Royal Militia kept in London England.

6. JOHN CALHOUN⁵ CALDWELL (*WILLIAM THOMAS*⁴, *WILLIAM*³, *JOHN*², *JOSEPH*¹) was born 09 Sep 1785, and died 15 Jan 1856 in Newberry District, South Carolina. He married (1) ELIZABETH HUNTER 14 Dec 1808, daughter of

JOHN HUNTER and SARAH SMITH. She died Jan 1816. He married (2) ABIGAIL O'NEALL 17 Oct 1816, daughter of HUGH O'NEALL.

Notes for JOHN CALHOUN CALDWELL:

Capt. John Calhoun Caldwell, 9/9/1785 - 1/15/1856 80 He received his primary education by a Mr. Pyles of Milton, Laurens Co. and Elisha Hammond @ Mt. Bethel Academy in Newberry. Because of the travel distance between his father's homestead and the schools it is safe to assume these were boarding schools, hence the reason he was not listed in his father's home in the Federal census Records.

John Caldwell and his teacher, Mr. Hammond, traveled to Boston, although when is not mentioned in "Reminiscences". I have read where Mr. Elijah Hammond, son of Senator Hammond, had traveled to Boston to procure books for the Library Society of Newberry 1804-1805.

As a lad John Caldwell also received a merchant's training under Wiley Glover of "96" and Robert Geddes of Charleston. Attending South Carolina College, he was distinguished in December 1806 when he delivered a salutatory address in Latin and English on the advantages of the republican form of government. This was done as a public demonstration of South Carolina College which had been newly formed. He graduated Dec. 1807 with second honors (class of four students) and then read Law under Samuel Farrow Esq. of Newberry where he practiced successfully. He was admitted to the Bar 1809 and in the War of 1812 commanded a troop of Cavalry which usually was mustered at Davenport's on Little River in Newberry. He was elected to State legislature 1812 but had to surrender the seat when he became Cashier at the State Bank of Columbia. When he was thirty years old and already married to Elizabeth Hunter both of his parents died within a month of each other. John petitioned the Court to be a guardian to his siblings, James (a teenager), Patrick (14 years old) and Elizabeth (12 years old). His family lived in Columbia until the death of his first wife a year later, in 1816. His siblings must have lived with him there. After the death of his wife John then moved back to Newberry marrying in Oct. of the same year to Abigail O'Neal, daughter of Quaker Hugh O'Neal and sister to Judge John Belton O'Neal. Besides caring for the two step-children and looking after Patrick and Elizabeth, Abigail became a mother the following year in 1817. Resuming the practice of Law, at various times John was a partner with John Belton O'Neal 1814-1816, Simeon Fair, William Jones.

From "Reminiscences of Newberry" by Carwile:

"The last time I saw John Caldwell he was sitting by his fireside, dressed in a long red flannel dressing gown which he commonly wore, his body sadly bent from the effects of rheumatism and paralysis. But he was bright and cheerful (indeed I never saw him depressed) and one could see in his expressive face, illuminated as it was, by his bright piercing eyes, something of the power by which in former days he could so wonderfully sway the feelings of a multitude".

"He destroyed his fortune and health through intemperance; late in his life he suffered paralysis. He had to sell most of his property and abandoned his law practice ..." 78 He is buried at Rosemont Cemetery, section B4, row 13, in the O'Neal Family Plot, along with his brother-in-law, John Belton O'Neal.

John Caldwell was elected to the 20th, 26th, 28th, 29th, 30th General Assemblies (1812 - 1833). While in the house he served on the following committees: judiciary, 1812, 1824-1825; military, 1812; privileges and elections, 1824-1825; incorporations 1828-1833; Justice of the Peace for Newberry District 1813; trustee for South Carolina College 1813-1817; Newberry Commissioner 1817; Trustee for Newberry Academy 1817; Justice of the Quorum for Newberry 1818-1830; Newberry Commissioner for public buildings 1818, 1827; road commissioner 1824.

Notes for JOHN PATRICK CALDWELL:
Obituary: Laurens, 10/29/1937

J.P. Caldwell, Laurens, Passes. One of three surviving Confederate Veterans of the County Succumbs.

John Patrick Caldwell, 93, Confederate War veteran and former superintendent of the Old Soldiers Home at Columbia, died today at the home here of his son, William M. Caldwell. With whom he had lived since 1913. He had been in feeble health for a long period before becoming an invalid more than six years ago, mainly from the infirmities of age. "Uncle Pat" as he had been affectionately known for years was a Laurens Co. native, the son of William Thomas Caldwell and Mary Chandler Caldwell. He was born 1/26/1844 at the old Dillard place, several miles east of Laurens. At the age of one year his parents moved to a new home in the vicinity of Union Baptist church, southwest of Laurens Village. At the age of 17, Patrick Caldwell enlisted for service in the Confederate army with Co. "C", a Laurens command that formed part of the 14th SC Infantry. The Laurens Company commanded by Capt. W. L. Wood departed 8/11/1861 to go to camp for brief training at Columbia. The youth was brought to town by his father the day before the company left and spent the night with his uncle John Garlington. He served throughout the four years struggle with the same company commanded after the first year by Capt. G. Wash Culbertson who had been promoted from first lieutenant upon the retirement of Capt. Wood because of age limit. Private Caldwell was wounded at the Battle of Malvern Hill but was not knocked out of service for long, though he received three slight wounds in action. He was the last survivor of his gallant company and his passing leaves only two Laurens County Civil War Veterans. After the War, Patrick Caldwell was married to Miss Margaret Frances Blackwell, member of a well-known Laurens family. For a long period of years he engaged in farming in the same section in which he had been reared. He had been affiliated with survivors organizations including his own which met in annual reunion at Union (Old Quaker) Church as long as a few from his old command augmented by a handful from other camps were able to hold a rally. He served on registration and pension boards for many years, meantime serving for a time as superintendent of the Confederate Home in Columbia. Mrs. Caldwell died 25 years ago. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mollie Pitts, Laurens and Mrs. Minnie C. Brown, Greenville; three sons, C. C. Caldwell of Greenville, B. Caldwell of Williamsburg Va., and W. M. Caldwell of Laurens; 25 grandchildren; 35 great grandchildren; 2 great - great - grandchildren. He has been a consistent member of the Union Baptist Church.

Funeral services will be held at Union Baptist Church at 11 a.m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. W.D. Spinx and the Rev. Jodie A. Martin. Internment will be in the family plot in the church cemetery. Pallbearers will be J.P.Lamar, Earl Caldwell, Claud Pitts, John Hudgens, Carlos Boyd. The honorary escort will be composed of J.A.Frank, C.A.Power, A.L.Hudgens, Will Power, B.Y.Culbertson, R.B.Young, S.R.Dorrah, J.D.W.Watt, J.W. Notes for MARGARET FRANCES BLACKWELL:
Laurens Advertiser Wednesday, 3/16/1910

Mrs. J. P. Caldwell

Funeral and burial services took place Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Caldwell, wife of Mr. J. P. Caldwell, one of the county's most excellent citizens, died of paralysis at her home, seven miles west of the city last Friday night in the 67th year of her age. Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m. the funeral service, conducted by Rev. W. D. Hammett, pastor, was held at Union (Quaker) church.

The Deceased was the daughter of Mr. Joel Blackwell who is now in his 90th year and is well known in Laurens, Greenwood, Abbeville Counties. Besides her husband, Mrs. Caldwell is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Henry Pitts and Miss Minnie Caldwell, and three sons, Messrs. William, Clifton and Joseph Caldwell.

Notes for CLAUDE MILLS PITTS:

A bit of trivia, Mom had told me that Dad was named after the Doctor that delivered him. With a bit of research I found Dr. Claude Benjamin Mills. Dr Claude Mills was married to Ethel Lee Chandler who was a 2nd Cousin to Molly Caldwell. The common Gr-Gr-etc Grandparents would be Weitt Chandler (1786-1847) and Sarah Bailey (1795-?) .
